New Desmond's Del Amo To Open Doors on Friday

Opening of Desmond's Del Amo on Friday has been announced by Fred B. Huesman, president of the pioneer retail apparel chain founded by Daniel Desmond in Los Angeles Plaza 104 years ago.

The new store, the 15th in the Desmond's chain will be the first to open in the Bullock's Fashion Square complex at Hawthorne Boulevard and Carson Street. It will be the sixth store to open since the 100th Anniversary Year in 1962, Huesman reported.

When completed, the Bullock's Fashion Square at Hawthorne and Carson will include 16 stores integrated into a unique urban shopping center patterned after Fashion Squares in Santa Ana and Sherman Oaks. The Bullock's store is scheduled to open this fall.

ROBERT HOREY Managing New Store

THE NEW Desmond's store is constructed of guttinated concrete brick reminiscent in color and texture of the adobe brick used in early California structures. Large ceramic panels dramatize the classic simplicity of the exterior.

The interior of the store features separate men's and women's apparel shops, and a Campus Hall shop for young men, with individual sections for men's furnishings, sportswear and shoes. The men's shops, highlighted by a suspended red canopy, has walls of exterior guttinated brick softened with rich teak.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell said, "A Sunday school goal of 300 has been established for Easter Sunday and meeting goals of 225 and 250 have been set for the two Sunday revival meetings.

The public is invited to attend the services. Nursery care will be provided at all services.

Needles Students Visit NHS

Student leaders from Needles Union High School were guests of the North High School Student Council as the result of an exchange program begun by a former North High principal.

Dr. Dale M. Harter, first principal of North High, is now the superintendent of schools in Needles. He discussed the exchange program with Janet Hanson and David Shilling, North's representatives to the Governor's Youth Conference.

Dr. Harter and Dr. Richard D. Guengerich, North High principal, completed arrangements to permit Needles High School students to observe the Saxon Student Council in action.

The Needles delegation was headed by Booker Edmunds, president of the Needles High School Council.

"We are most interested in learning how your organization works with the administration in making decisions that affect the entire student body," Edmunds told the Saxon student leaders.

"This is a very good idea," Shilling, Saxon student president, said. "We were pleased to be able to host the Needles High School council and we feel we had a very pleasant and beneficial day," he added.

Girls Plan Show, Tea

Sheila Masterson and her refreshment committee will supply cake, tea, coffee, and punch for the arriving guests. Decorations chairman, Cathy Griffith, will have the model's ramp blooming with spring flowers. Some of the school's own students are being trained by Mrs. Agnes to model the new spring ensembles.

Planner Quits Job In a Huff

A two-year veteran of Planning Commission service who is seeking election to the City Council resigned his post this week, charging that councilmen were more interested in a "rubber stamp" commission.

In a letter to the mayor and councilmen, Leo F. X. Salisbury, one of 16 candidates for three City Council seats, said he was resigning immediately.

In a list of grievances, Salisbury said he had been pressured as a commissioner, and said councilmen didn't always vote with the city's best interests in mind.

He was appointed to the Planning Commission in 1964 by Nicholas O. Dralle, then a member of the City Council. Dralle now is a candidate for mayor.

Education Benefits

Veterans planning to go to school under the new GI Bill do not have to rush to meet a deadline, Mort Webster, manager of VA's Southern California Regional Office, said today.

Although most benefits under the new bill are effective immediately, the education assistance benefits will not begin until June 1, Webster explained.

Late in April, the VA expects to have application blanks and full information available at all VA offices and at the admission offices in most approved schools.

Veterans will have ample time to select courses and make application without losing either class time or payments from VA, Webster said.
